The quilters have been busy, the quilt is finished for our ticket sales for our draw at our November 4th craft sale. Tickets are $2.00 each or 3 for $5.00. The quilters entered 14 items in the Hymers Fall Fair where the quilt took first place and the other items 5 firsts, 5 seconds and 2 thirds, they won $74.00 on their entries.

CRAFT SHOW

Anyone wanting to book a table for the craft sale being held on November 4th please call the Centre. The rental is $15.00 a table.

Thank you to Gary & Gwen Jessiman who donated a newer lathe to the Centre, there will be a course in October for members interested in learning how to use it. It will not be a wood turning course, it will be on the operation of the lathe because it is quite different to the one we have now. There will be information about a date and time.

Our oldest member Edith Lazaruk turned 99 on August 22nd.

UPGRADES

The loom room has another 60" loom with a flying shuttle that we purchased this summer.

The quilt room has a newer quilt machine that was donated and will be set up this month.

Sharon Corrigan will have more information.

The library has received some large print books donated by the Thunder Bay libraries.

Come and check out what is new in the library.

We have a bunch of plastic pails at the Centre and if anyone is interested in them they can make a donation to the Centre.

There will be a luncheon at the Kakabeka Legion on Friday, October 27, 2023 from noon until 1:00 p.m. The luncheon will include soup, sandwiches and dessert. The cost is $5.00 per person for members and $15.00 per person for non-members. There is a sign-up sheet at the centre.

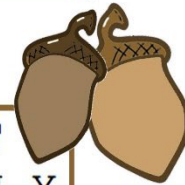

The Board of Directors has not changed as no one was interested in running for the Board, the executive remains the same: President – Lloyd Hanton, Vice President – Gary MacDonald, Treasurer - Lucy Kloosterhuis and Secretary – Susan Hanton.

Starting you back into the newsletter season with an easy puzzle; be ready for next month!
