FRIENDSHIP

Life is made sweet because of friends we have made,
And the things which in common we share,
We want to live on, not because of ourselves,
But because of the people who care.

It's in going and doing for somebody else
On that all life's splendour depends,
And the joys of this life, when you've summed it all up
Are found in the making of friends.

Friends, family and just acquaintances, let's remember all of us are human, all of us have different personalities, different dreams, and different challenges in life. BUT, when we stop to think and look around, we should all notice that we are really not different from each other. Not only during the holiday season, but throughout the entire year, let's treat everyone as a unique and special person and keep respect in all of our relationships.
