IT'S NOT TOO LATE – GET IN TOUCH WITH US
BEFORE WE CLOSE FOR THE SUMMER!

Most of us are going to be going out and not sitting at home doing puzzles during the summer, but.....there may be that occasional wet day when you want to stay inside and be amused. Hopefully this will help, and they are not too hard.

Sizzling Summer Brain-Teasers – What am I?

1. I stretch far and wide with sand and tide; children play where seashells hide.
2. I freeze under the sun, as I drip and run; in cones and bowls, I'm second to none.
3. To protect your skin from the sky's bright grin; I take a stand, applied by hand.
4. Filled with water, cool and deep, dive in with a splashy leap.
5. I block the rays that make you squint. Perched on noses, I give a hint.
6. I flip and I flop, no need for socks. On sunny days, I walk the docks.
7. I'm sour and sweet, with ice a treat; sipped in the shade, I can't be beat.
8. I'm large and green, with seeds within; juicy and sweet, a summer's win.
9. On your head I sit tall, shading eyes, I protect all. A summer's guard against the bright ball.
10. On a blanket laid with care, over grass or sand, food to share; where friends gather in the open air.
11. Grilling outdoors, smoke spirals high, cooking meats or veggies, under the sky.
12. Tents and fires, nature's charm, we do this away from city's harm.
13. Away from work, I take you far, a break from routine, perhaps to where palm trees are.
14. I flicker and float, a tine light in the night, catching me is a summer delight.
15. I'm a cool solution, in your house I spin, fighting summer's heat from within.
16. I'm a mark from the sun, when your skin's had too much fun.
17. I'm a frozen treat on a stick, lick me quick before I drip.
18. Swing and sway in a breeze, between two trees, take a nap with ease.
19. I have sails but I'm not a bird, across the waves I'm often heard.
20. I'm not an idol, but I have many fans, they love it when I spin and stand.
